ANTI-BRIBERY & ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY

This Policy was approved by the Board of Vulcan Energy Resources Limited on 6 February 2020

1. Background

The Company is committed to conducting all of its business activities fairly, honestly with integrity, and in compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations. Its Board, management and employees are dedicated to high ethical standards and recognise and support the Company's commitment to compliance with these standards.

In particular, the Company is committed to preventing any form of Corruption and Bribery and to upholding all laws relevant to these issues, including the Anti-Corruption Legislation. In order to support this commitment, the Company has adopted this Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy (ABC Policy) to ensure that it has effective procedures in place to prevent Corruption and Bribery.

This ABC Policy applies globally. To the extent that local laws, codes of conduct or other regulations (Local Laws) in any countries are more rigorous or restrictive than this ABC Policy, those Local Laws should be followed by any subsidiary operating in that country. Where a country has specific bribery and corruption Local Laws which are less rigorous than this ABC Policy, this ABC Policy prevails. The Company may, from time to time, provide country-specific directions for subsidiaries operating in countries outside of Australia.

This ABC Policy sets out the Company's requirements in relation to interactions with Officials and Third Parties. This ABC Policy does not prohibit interactions with Officials, rather it forbids corrupt interactions with those individuals.

2. Definitions

In this ABC Policy the following words or phrases mean the following:

Anti-Corruption Legislation includes many laws such as the Criminal Code Act 1995 (Cth) and any applicable anti-corruption laws and regulations applicable to the location in which the Company operates.

Facilitation Payment means payments of nominal amounts or other inducement made to persons in order to secure or expedite the performance of a Government Official's routine governmental duties or actions.

Gifts, Entertainment and Hospitality includes the receipt or offer of presents, meals or tokens of appreciation and gratitude or invitations to events, functions, or other social gatherings, in connection with matters related to the Company's business unless they:

- (a) fall within reasonable bounds of value and occurrence;
- (b) do not influence, or are not perceived to influence, objective business judgement; and
- (c) are not prohibited or limited by applicable laws or applicable industry codes.

Government Official means:

- (a) any politician, political party, party official or candidate of political office;

- (b) any official or employee of a domestic or foreign government (whether national, state/provincial or local) or agency, department or instrumentality of any domestic or foreign government or any government-owned or controlled entity (including state-owned enterprises);

- (d) any person acting in a private or public official function or capacity for such domestic or foreign government, agency, instrumentality, entity or organisation;

- (f) any person who holds themselves out to be an authorised intermediary of a government official.

Item of Value includes, amongst other things, cash, travel, meals, Gifts, Entertainment and Hospitality, other tangible or intangible benefits or anything of value.

Secure an improper advantage includes obtaining any commercial or financial benefit.

Third Party means any individual or organisation other than Officials, with whom Personnel come into contact during the course of their employment or business relationships associated with the Company.

3. Purpose

The purpose of this ABC Policy is to:

- (a) set out the responsibilities of the Company and its management and Personnel in upholding the Company's commitment to preventing any form of Bribery or Corruption; and

- (b) The Company's corporate values require that in all aspects of business all Personnel act honestly, adhere to the highest ethical standards, and act in compliance with all relevant legal requirements. In this respect Personnel must not engage in Bribery or any other form of Corruption.
- (c) The prohibition of Bribery under this ABC Policy includes the provision or conveying of an Item of Value to any Third Party, Official or family members of Officials, whether directly or indirectly, to secure any improper advantage or to obtain or retain business. This means that Personnel must not:
 - (i) offer, promise or give an Item of Value with the intention of influencing an Official or Third Party who is otherwise expected to act in good faith or in an impartial manner, to do or omit to do anything in the performance of their role or function, in order to provide the Company with business or an improper advantage; or

(a) Political Contributions

The Company prohibits Personnel from making political contributions to Officials (or political involvement of any kind) on behalf of the Company. Any donations above a level determined in Federal legislation must be disclosed annually to the Australian Electoral Commission and will be published on its website.

This ABC Policy does not seek to curtail an individual's freedom to make political contributions in their personal capacity.

The context of any other political contributions is key in determining their appropriateness. For instance, it is permissible for the Company to make a payment to attend a political function in circumstances where such payment could not be construed as an attempt to influence the political party.

If you are in any doubt as to the appropriateness of any political contribution, you should consult the Board before it is given or accepted or otherwise as soon as possible.

(b) Charitable Donations

The Company can only make charitable donations that are legal and ethical under Local Laws and practices. In order to ensure that donations made by the Company to charitable organisations are for proper charitable purposes, Personnel must only make donations on behalf of the Company to charitable organisations previously approved by the Company and within approved financial limits.

A list of approved charitable organisations is to be maintained by the Board and provided upon request.

- (a) All interactions with Officials, Third Parties and Business Associates must comply with this ABC Policy, and the Company and Personnel must not take any actions, whether direct or indirect, which create the appearance of impropriety regardless of whether there is any improper intent behind their actions.
- (b) The prohibitions under this ABC Policy include a prohibition on Personnel using personal funds to undertake any interaction or transaction that is prohibited under this ABC Policy.

7.6. Documentation and Recordkeeping business and corrected. No accounts are to be kept “off the books” to facilitate or conceal improper payments.

- (d) All Personnel must record Items of Value given or received in the Items of Value Register and expense reports and approved in accordance with the relevant expense policy.

If Local Laws in a particular country or region are more restrictive than this ABC Policy, then any Personnel, including any Business Associates operating in that country or region must fully comply with the more restrictive requirements.

APPENDIX 2- GUIDANCE ON ACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOUR

Practical Examples

Example 1

As part of my role with Vulcan I have recently arrived in a new city where Vulcan is looking to expand. The local business association seems to have good contacts with the government officials and so I obtain the required approvals to join. Shortly after joining, one of the officials from the association approaches me about sponsoring a table at an upcoming sports day. Tickets for this event are €2,000 per head and profits are to be used to fund their annual networking event with the local government officials. What should I do?

It is important to determine whether:

- (a) there is a legitimate business purpose for sponsoring the table; and
- (b) the cost is reasonable for a meal in this location.

As the funds are to be used to provide something of value to officials which may (or may be perceived to) influence their actions making such a donation may be in breach of the ABC Policy and should be avoided.

Example 2

I speak regularly with a government official who is responsible for making decisions that will affect Vulcan. After a meeting, he tells me that his daughter has recently graduated with first class honours at a location where Vulcan is currently looking for graduate staff. The official asks if Vulcan has any jobs and whether I could assist his daughter to find a job as she requires a job in order to stay in the country. What should I do?

As a job is something of value and the daughter is a close relative of an influential government official with whom Vulcan deals regularly, you should say that you are unable to offer personal assistance as this may breach the ABC policy. However, we understand it is important to be courteous, so we would advise that you advise that there is a job available and to provide the details whereby the daughter can apply, noting that she will be judged based on her merits.

Acceptable and Unacceptable Behaviour

The following points provide guidance on acceptable behaviour and should always be followed:

- (a) record all transactions accurately and in reasonable detail to reflect their true nature.
- (b) understand the role and interests of the person who you are dealing with.
- (c) provide accurate and complete information when seeking pre-approval.
- (d) get pre-approval before offering or giving anything of value, a commercial sponsorship or a community donation or project.
- (e) get pre-approval before receiving any Items of Value above AU$100.
- (f) act in the best interests of your health and safety.
- (g) immediately report any corruption concerns.

The following points provide guidance on acceptable behaviour and should never occur:

- (a) offer, promise, give or approve anything of value (including a daily allowance or per diem, cash or cash equivalent) of any kind to a government official to influence official action, including facilitation payments without prior approval. This also applies to a political party, elected official or candidate for public office.
- (b) offer, promise, give or approve schemes which give an improper benefit to anyone.
- (c) establish a hidden or incorrectly recorded fund for prohibited payments.
- (d) use personal funds, divide payments, or hide activity which would otherwise need pre-approval.
- (e) use a supplier if you are concerned they will engage in corrupt or improper conduct on our behalf.
